

“Lead or be Led”

This multi-professional course has been designed for junior SpRs, GPRs, AHPs and junior managers. It helps delegates enhance their role as a manager and leader.

Aims of the programme:

- Participants will develop their skills as managers and leaders through:
- Exploring their leadership style and personal preferences using the Myers Briggs Type Indicator
- Considering different team roles and how to develop an effective team
- Gaining insight into the complex structure of the NHS and its accountability to parliament.
- Through practical exercise, participants have the opportunity to use their knowledge in the context of making corporate decisions in the face of competing demands.

The course runs over 2 days and is residential. Please note that attendance at dinner on the evening of day 1 is a required part of the course.

Please contact the NESC Course Centre for available dates.
