

Immunisation Conference
 Tuesday 17th March 2009
 Lecture Theatre 2
 JR Hospital Oxford

Time	Topic	Speaker/s
8.30 - 9.10	Coffee &amp; registration
9.10- 9.20	Welcome & Introduction	Judith Moreton Immunisation Advisor TVHPU and OVG
9.20 - 9.50	HPV—the story so far; how we implemented HPV vaccine into the national programme	Marilyn Lansley Immunisation Co-ordinator, Berks East PCT
9.50 - 10.20	How vaccines work and immunology and the immunosuppressed	Dr D Kelly Clinical Lecturer in Paediatrics Oxford
10.20 - 10.50	Vaccinating vulnerable groups	Alyson Smith Consultant in Health Protection TVHPU
10.50 - 11.15	Travel - visiting friends and relatives abroad	Sarah Lang Immunisation Advisor TVHPU and OVG
11.15 - 11.40	Coffee
11.40 -12.10	The prevention of rabies- including case scenarios	Mary Warrell Oxford Vaccine Group
12.10 - 13.10	Interactive session – current vaccine questions and answers	Chaired by Prof Andrew J Pollard Professor of Paediatric Infection &amp; Immunity
13.10	Lunch
14.00 -14.30	The role of Epidemiology surveillance in directing immunisation programmes	Noel McCarthy Consultant in Communicable Disease Control TVHPU
14.30 - 15.00	Developing new vaccines; results of Men B and pneumococcal vaccine research studies	Matthew Snape Hon Consultant Paediatrician
15.00 - 15.30	Ask the panel	Chaired by Judith Moreton
15.30- 16.00	The future of MenC Vaccination	Prof Andrew J Pollard
16.00	Closing Remarks

Cost £35.00 to include lunch and refreshments
 Registration form - download from OVG website
www.paediatrics.ox.ac.uk/ovg/teaching.html

Further info from ovg.conference@paediatrics.ox.ac.uk or 01865 231701/857420