

“The New Nice Guidelines for COPD; What’s Changed, and Why?”

Boehringer Ingelheim has been a successful family owned business since 1885 and intends to continue delivering positive outcomes for patients as it celebrates its 125th anniversary. We strive to further support service improvement through delivering 'added-value' partnerships with the NHS and local community.

Boehringer Ingelheim would like to invite you to an evening talk entitled “The New Nice Guidelines for COPD; What’s Changed, and Why?” at The Manor Hotel, Newbury (RG14 2BY) on September 9th 2010 at 7.00 pm.

The meeting’s speaker will be Dr Grace Robinson, Consultant at Royal Berkshire Hospital, since 2007. Grace trained in Oxford with research in the cardiovascular effects of sleep apnoea and has co-authored the prize winning ‘Oxford Handbook of Respiratory Medicine’. She has a large involvement in teaching at the Royal Berks, as RCP College Tutor, and with the British Thoracic Society, where she sits on the Education and Training Committee.

If you would like to attend please complete the slip overleaf and fold into a windowed envelope. Alternatively please respond by phone to Frank Ratcliff on 07920 587409 or by email to Frank.Ratcliff@boehringer-ingelheim.com

Your early response is recommended as places are limited.

Yours sincerely,

F Ratcliff
